

Trivial Pursuit

1. GEOGRAPHY

What modern day Country was formerly known as Mesopotamia?

2. ENTERTAINMENT

In what film did Russell Crowe play Maximus Decimus Meridius?

3. HISTORY

What popular Swimwear Manufacturer, whose name has become synonymous with racing briefs, was established in 1914?

4. ARTS & LITERATURE

Counter Tenor is the lowest type of Male singing voice? True or False?

5. SCIENCE & NATURE

How many chambers make up the heart – two, three or four?

6. SPORTS & LEISURE

If a player is at advantage in a game of tennis loses the next point, what is the score?

7. GEOGRAPHY

The Piedmont Wine Region is located in – France, Italy or the United States?

8. ENTERTAINMENT

Which of these films does not star Ben Stiller – Dodgeball, The Wedding Singer or Night at the Museum?

9. HISTORY

New Zealand was first inhabited by people approximately how many years ago – 1,000, 5,000 or 10,000?

10. ARTS & LITERATURE

What do the text messages LOL, IDK and TTYL stand for?

1. Iraq
2. Gladiator
3. Speedo
4. False – Counter Tenor is the highest male singing voice, bass is the lowest
5. Four
6. Deuce – If the player wins the point, he or she wins the game
7. Italy
8. The Wedding Singer
9. 1,000
10. Laugh(ing) Out Loud, I Don't Know and Talk To You Later