

True or False

1. Kansas is the flattest state in the USA?
2. The Battle of Hastings took place on 14 October 1066?
3. There are 1 million ants for every human in the World?
4. The Scientific name for tennis elbow is 'Tinea Pedis'?
5. There are 10 players on a women's lacrosse team?
6. Justin Timberlake was the youngest member of 1990's boy band 'N Sync.'?
7. The Nebula Awards celebrate work in the field of astronomy?
8. Vladimir Zhirinovsky is the leader of the Liberal Democratic Party of Russia?
9. Switzerland has four official national languages?
10. In the geologic timescale, the Cretaceous Period followed the Triassic Period?

1. False – Florida is the flattest
2. True – The Norman invaders led by William the Conqueror defeated the army of King Harold II
3. True – These resilient creatures also never sleep and do not have lungs
4. False – This is the scientific name for Athletes Foot
5. False – There are 10 in men's lacrosse but 12 in women's lacrosse
6. True – Born in 1981, he was the youngest by almost 2 years
7. False – They are the annual awards for works in science fiction or fantasy writing
8. True – he founded the party in 1991
9. True – They are German, French, Italian and Romansh
10. False – The Jurassic Period came between the two