

Which Country is the only place in the World where Halloween is a National Holiday and Schools close for the celebration?

01

In Celtic Folklore, Numerous herbs, including valerian, fennel and rosemary, were thought to be effective against what?

02

During the 1870's, in the Wild West, what was known as 'Tarantula Juice' because it was thought to be a remedy for a Tarantula's bite?

03

As a sick child, his Mother read him bedtime stories about glaishtigs, evil female fairies that drank blood, obtained by either slashing the throats of hunters or sucking the veins of human lovers. Stories that gave him nightmares. Born in Dublin in 1847, which Author am I describing?

04

100's of years ago, women would eat Gingerbread men at Halloween because they believed it would guarantee them what?

05

In the 1500s, following the burial of a loved one, people would spend the night in the cemetery listening for sounds of bells or voices calling from the graves as this would indicate the person had been accidentally buried alive. What phrase derived from this practice?

06

Traditionally, what was sang at the end of Halloween Celebrations in Scotland?

07

The Salem Witch Trials (1692-1693) saw the execution of how many people?

08

In Victorian England, it was a popular family activity to conduct what at Halloween?

09

In Ireland, in 1959, the proposed route for a new road was altered when locals protested it would destroy what?

10

Which Country is the only place in the World where Halloween is a National Holiday and Schools close for the celebration?

01

Ireland

In Celtic Folklore, Numerous herbs, including valerian, fennel and rosemary, were thought to be effective against what?

02

Witchcraft

During the 1870's, in the Wild West, what was known as 'Tarantula Juice' because it was thought to be a remedy for a Tarantula's bite?

03

Whiskey

As a sick child, his Mother read him bedtime stories about glaistigs, evil female fairies that drank blood, obtained by either slashing the throats of hunters or sucking the veins of human lovers. Stories that gave him nightmares. Born in Dublin in 1847, which Author am I describing?

04

Abraham 'Bram' Stoker

100's of years ago, women would eat Gingerbread men at Halloween because they believed it would guarantee them what?

05

Marrying in the future

In the 1500s, following the burial of a loved one, people would spend the night in the cemetery listening for sounds of bells or voices calling from the graves as this would indicate the person had been accidentally buried alive. What phrase derived from this practice?

06

Graveyard Shift

Traditionally, what was sang at the end of Halloween Celebrations in Scotland?

07

Auld Lang Syne

The Salem Witch Trials (1692-1693) saw the execution of how many people?

08

20 (19 hangings and 1 by pressing)

In Victorian England, it was a popular family activity to conduct what at Halloween?

09

A family séance

In Ireland, in 1959, the proposed route for a new road was altered when locals protested it would destroy what?

10

A Fairy Palace

