

Pub Quiz #419

Geography #6

1. Where is the Table Mountain?
2. The Severn bridge can take you from England to which country?
3. What river forms the boundary between Texas and Mexico?
4. Where is Amber Valley located in England?
5. Where is the leaning Tower of Pisa located?
6. Where is the Canterbury Cathedral located?
7. Which of the following cities is also a country? Beijing, Vatican City, Tokyo or London
8. How is the magnitude of an earthquake measured?
9. In transport what does the abbreviation 'HGV' mean?
10. Which is the largest port in Germany?

Pub Quiz #419

ANSWERS

Geography #6

1. Where is the Table Mountain?

Cape Town

2. The Severn bridge can take you from England to which country?

Wales

3. What river forms the boundary between Texas and Mexico?

Rio Grande

4. Where is Amber Valley located in England?

Derbyshire

5. Where is the leaning Tower of Pisa located?

Italy

6. Where is the Canterbury Cathedral located?

United Kingdom

7. Which of the following cities is also a country? Beijing, Vatican City, Tokyo or London

Vatican City

8. How is the magnitude of an earthquake measured?

Richter Scale

9. In transport what does the abbreviation 'HGV' mean?

Heavy Goods Vehicle

10. Which is the largest port in Germany?

Hamburg