

Pub Quiz #447

Science and Nature 8

1. Who are the predators of killer whales? 1. _____
2. What drug was once known as 'Mould Juice'? 2. _____
3. Who invented the mercury thermometer? 3. _____
4. What scientific instrument is used to measure atmospheric pressure? 4. _____
5. What is a sextant used for? 5. _____
6. Which bones does 'March fracture' usually affect? 6. _____
7. In the human body, what is the more common name for rhinorrhea? 7. _____
8. Where is the smallest bone in the human body? 8. _____
9. Who was the first known carrier of hemophilia? 9. _____
10. How does someone get cystic fibrosis? 10. _____
11. What is a cardiogram? 11. _____
12. Who can use a defibrillator? 12. _____

Pub Quiz #447

ANSWERS

Science and Nature 8

1. Who are the predators of killer whales?
1. They have no predators
2. What drug was once known as 'Mould Juice'?
2. Penicillin
3. Who invented the mercury thermometer?
3. Gabriel Fahrenheit
4. What scientific instrument is used to measure atmospheric pressure?
4. Barometer
5. What is a sextant used for?
5. Distance measurement
6. Which bones does 'March fracture' usually affect?
6. Foot Bones
7. In the human body, what is the more common name for rhinorrhea?
7. Runny nose
8. Where is the smallest bone in the human body?
8. In the ear
9. Who was the first known carrier of hemophilia?
9. Queen Victoria
10. How does someone get cystic fibrosis?
10. Genetic Disease
11. What is a cardiogram?
11. Record of the heart
12. Who can use a defibrillator?
12. Anyone