

TRUE OR FALSE

Team Name

Score

www.woodenspoonquizzes.co.uk

1. The flushing toilet was invented by Victorian Plumber Thomas Crapper T ☐ F ☐
2. A condemned prisoner is legally entitled to go free if the 1st attempt to execute him fails T ☐ F ☐
3. Lightning never strikes the same place twice T ☐ F ☐
4. The queen has two birthdays per year T ☐ F ☐
5. The largest land-locked country in the world is Mongolia T ☐ F ☐
6. You can't sneeze with your eyes open, if you could, your eyes would pop out of their sockets T ☐ F ☐
7. The first words spoken on the moon were 'The Eagle Has Landed' T ☐ F ☐
8. A camel can survive without water longer than any other mammal T ☐ F ☐
9. Eating shrimp shortly after taking a vit c tablet is dangerous as the two can produce arsenic T ☐ F ☐
10. The French call April Fools Day 'April Fish Day' T ☐ F ☐
11. There are about 1 million earth tremors worldwide per year T ☐ F ☐
12. Adolf Hitler was Time Magazines 'Man Of The Year' in 1938 T ☐ F ☐
13. Armadillos are the only animal apart from humans that can contract leprosy T ☐ F ☐
14. Every day is longer than the previous day by around 55 billionths of a second T ☐ F ☐
15. A sudden shock can cause a persons hair to turn white overnight T ☐ F ☐
16. The dodo died out because human beings hunted them to extinction T ☐ F ☐
17. The elephant is the only land animal other than humans that cries T ☐ F ☐
18. Cutting your hair will help it grow faster and thicker T ☐ F ☐
19. The word 'buck' comes from the frontier days when deerskins were a common form of exchange T ☐ F ☐
20. The worlds largest pyramid is not in Egypt, but Mexico T ☐ F ☐
21. On US interstate highways, 1 mile in 5 is straight so it can be used as a runway in emergencies T ☐ F ☐
22. Saint Valentine is the patron saint of both lovers and beekeepers T ☐ F ☐
23. Elephants can remain standing after death T ☐ F ☐
24. A healthy human brain is gray in colour T ☐ F ☐

TRUE OR FALSE

1. The flushing toilet was invented by Victorian Plumber Thomas Crapper T ☐ F ☒
2. A condemned prisoner is legally entitled to go free if the 1st attempt to execute him fails T ☐ F ☒
3. Lightning never strikes the same place twice T ☐ F ☒
4. The queen has two birthdays per year T ☐ F ☒
5. The largest land-locked country in the world is Mongolia T ☒ F ☐
6. You can't sneeze with your eyes open, if you could, your eyes would pop out of their sockets T ☐ F ☒
7. The first words spoken on the moon were 'The Eagle Has Landed' T ☐ F ☒
8. A camel can survive without water longer than any other mammal T ☐ F ☒
9. Eating shrimp shortly after taking a vit c tablet is dangerous as the two can produce arsenic T ☐ F ☒
10. The French call April Fools Day 'April Fish Day' T ☒ F ☐
11. There are about 1 million earth tremors worldwide per year T ☒ F ☐
12. Adolf Hitler was Time Magazines 'Man Of The Year' in 1938 T ☒ F ☐
13. Armadillos are the only animal apart from humans that can contract leprosy T ☒ F ☐
14. Every day is longer than the previous day by around 55 billionths of a second T ☒ F ☐
15. A sudden shock can cause a persons hair to turn white overnight T ☐ F ☒
16. The dodo died out because human beings hunted them to extinction T ☐ F ☒
17. The elephant is the only land animal other than humans that cries T ☒ F ☐
18. Cutting your hair will help it grow faster and thicker T ☐ F ☒
19. The word 'buck' comes from the frontier days when deerskins were a common form of exchange T ☒ F ☐
20. The worlds largest pyramid is not in Egypt, but Mexico T ☒ F ☐
21. On US interstate highways, 1 mile in 5 is straight so it can be used as a runway in emergencies T ☒ F ☐
22. Saint Valentine is the patron saint of both lovers and beekeepers T ☒ F ☐
23. Elephants can remain standing after death T ☒ F ☐
24. A healthy human brain is gray in colour T ☐ F ☒

