

True or False

Team Name

Score

www.woodenspoonquizzes.co.uk

1. In Internet Chat, the letters BRB stand for 'Boss Right Behind' T  F
2. Marvin Acme and Baron von Rotten were characters in the movie 'Monsters Inc' T  F
3. The World War II Battlefield of El Alamein is in Egypt T  F
4. The English Band 'Radiohead' is fronted by singer, Thom Yorke T  F
5. The Beaufort Scale is used to measure changes in wind speed T  F
6. The novel 'Captain Corelli's Mandolin' was set on the Ionian Island of Zakynthos T  F
7. In the Lethal Weapon films, the part of Martin Riggs was played by Mel Gibson T  F
8. Cottage Girl with Dog and Pitcher is one of English painter Thomas Gainsboroughs most famous works T  F
9. Hydroponics is the study of freshwater fish T  F
10. Bono, lead singer of U2's real name is David Evans T  F
11. Australia's Melbourne Cup is held every year on the first Tuesday of November T  F
12. Singer Lily Allen's Brother plays the role of Robb Stark in the TV Series Game Of Thrones T  F
13. Arthur Miller took six years to write the play Death Of A Salesman T  F
14. In Roman Numerals, D is larger than C T  F
15. Foie Gras production is illegal in Argentina T  F
16. There are no US States that end with the letter 'K' T  F
17. The lightest metallic element in the periodic table is potassium T  F
18. The Arctic is both the smallest and the coldest ocean on Earth T  F
19. The US City of Denver is also known as The Mile-High City T  F
20. South Pacific was the last musical Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote together T  F
21. A golfer may have a maximum of 12 clubs in his or her bag at any one time T  F
22. The London Underground has 10 different lines T  F
23. Macbeth was a real person T  F
24. Mikhail Gorbachev has a Nobel Peace Prize T  F

True or False

1. In Internet Chat, the letters BRB stand for 'Boss Right Behind' T  F
2. Marvin Acme and Baron von Rotten were characters in the movie 'Monsters Inc' T  F
3. The World War II Battlefield of El Alamein is in Egypt T  F
4. The English Band 'Radiohead' is fronted by singer, Thom Yorke T  F
5. The Beaufort Scale is used to measure changes in wind speed T  F
6. The novel 'Captain Corelli's Mandolin' was set on the Ionian Island of Zakynthos T  F
7. In the Lethal Weapon films, the part of Martin Riggs was played by Mel Gibson T  F
8. Cottage Girl with Dog and Pitcher is one of English painter Thomas Gainsboroughs most famous works T  F
9. Hydroponics is the study of freshwater fish T  F
10. Bono, lead singer of U2's real name is David Evans T  F
11. Australia's Melbourne Cup is held every year on the first Tuesday of November T  F
12. Singer Lily Allen's Brother plays the role of Robb Stark in the TV Series Game Of Thrones T  F
13. Arthur Miller took six years to write the play Death Of A Salesman T  F
14. In Roman Numerals, D is larger than C T  F
15. Foie Gras production is illegal in Argentina T  F
16. There are no US States that end with the letter 'K' T  F
17. The lightest metallic element in the periodic table is potassium T  F
18. The Arctic is both the smallest and the coldest ocean on Earth T  F
19. The US City of Denver is also known as The Mile-High City T  F
20. South Pacific was the last musical Rodgers and Hammerstein wrote together T  F
21. A golfer may have a maximum of 12 clubs in his or her bag at any one time T  F
22. The London Underground has 10 different lines T  F
23. Macbeth was a real person T  F
24. Mikhail Gorbachev has a Nobel Peace Prize T  F