

Pub Quiz 687

Science and Nature 19

1. What does a pH level measure?
2. How many orbits of the earth did John Glenn make in Mercury-Atlas 6 in 1962?
3. The olfactory organs are concerned with the sense of what?
4. What kind of animal is a parakeet?
5. The optic nerve connects the brain to which part of the body?
6. Which tree can be English, Dutch or wych?
7. An aster is a type of what?
8. Name the longest bone in the human body?
9. What fluid results from lachrymation?
10. What is the name for radiations of a wavelength longer than and immediately next to the visible spectrum?
11. Complete Newton's third law of motion, 'Every action has an equal and opposite ____' What?
12. In which unit is the height of a horse measured?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Pub Quiz 687

Science and Nature 19

1. What does a pH level measure?
2. How many orbits of the earth did John Glenn make in Mercury-Atlas 6 in 1962?
3. The olfactory organs are concerned with the sense of what?
4. What kind of animal is a parakeet?
5. The optic nerve connects the brain to which part of the body?
6. Which tree can be English, Dutch or wych?
7. An aster is a type of what?
8. Name the longest bone in the human body?
9. What fluid results from lachrymation?
10. What is the name for radiations of a wavelength longer than and immediately next to the visible spectrum?
11. Complete Newton's third law of motion, 'Every action has an equal and opposite ____' What?
12. In which unit is the height of a horse measured?

Quizmaster Answers

- | | |
|------------|---------------|
| 1. Acidity | 7. Plant |
| 2. 3 | 8. Femur |
| 3. Smell | 9. Tears |
| 4. Bird | 10. Infra Red |
| 5. Eye | 11. Reaction |
| 6. Elm | 12. Hand |