

Transport and Travel

Wooden Spoon Quizzes

Which motorway links Exeter with Birmingham?	M5
Schiphol Airport serves which European City?	Amsterdam
The home ground of Manchester City FC is named after which Airline?	Etihad
Olympic Airlines was the national flag carrier airline of which Country?	Greece
The SNCF is the national railway of which Country?	France
Longbridge, the site of a former massive car factory is in which City?	Birmingham
'Driving in my Car' was a number four hit in 1982 for which Band?	Madness
Which area of London gives its name to a type of taxi?	Hackney (Carriage)
The National Railway Museum is in which English City?	York
The motor manufacturer Daewoo is based in which Country?	South Korea
What is the occupation of the 650 people who enjoyed a 12 week Summer Holiday in 2009?	MP
What is the name for a holiday that is taken at home or locally instead of going abroad?	Staycation
What two word phrase is used by the MET Office to convey the fact that the weather is likely to be sizzling?	Barbecue Summer
Which is the most popular foreign country for Britons to escape to on their holidays?	Spain
If you had just landed at O'Hare International Airport, which city would you be in?	Chicago
If you were visiting the city of Tunis, in which African country would you be in?	Tunisia
If you were staying in Spa, the Resort Town which gives its name to all such health resorts, in which country would you be?	Belgium
If you were visiting the Giant Amphitheatre called the Colosseum, in which city would you be?	Rome
In which Italian city would you be if you were looking at a Tower that leans approximately 4 degrees from Perpendicular?	Pisa
If you were visiting the birthplace of Albert Einstein, in which city would you be?	Ulm
If you were visiting the most northerly capital city in the world, in which city would you be?	Reykjavik
If you are standing next to Christ the Redeemer statue, which city would you be overlooking?	Rio De Janeiro
What is the name given to a key on a map?	A legend
El Al is the national airline of which country?	Israel
Which railway service makes exclusive use of the Channel Tunnel?	Eurostar
If you were arriving at Piccadilly mainline railway station, where would you be?	Manchester
How is a footpath indicated on a map?	A dotted line
The Clacket Lane services are on which motorway?	M25
What nationality was the airline entrepreneur Sir Freddie Laker?	English

Transport and Travel

Wooden Spoon Quizzes

Which American train service connects many US States and several Canadian cities?	Amtrak
If you visited the 2010 FIFA World Cup Final, which city did you travel to?	Johannesburg
If you just landed at Schiphol Airport, which city would you be in?	Amsterdam
A Juggernaut is what type of vehicle?	Lorry
What name is given to the noisy line that warns a driver of the edge of the road?	Rumble Strip
The holiday island of Ibiza belongs in which country?	Spain
Which European country popular with Brits has the rivers Guadiana and Tagos?	Portugal
In which ocean is Fiji?	Pacific
What name is given to America's most westerly time zone?	Pacific
On which European island is the beach of Mazzaro?	Sicily
The resort of Kuta is on which island - Bali or Malta?	Bali
Which island are you on if you visit Mellieha?	Malta
In Australia, which state is commonly called the 'Sunshine State'?	Queensland
In which country is the much-visited Saumur Castle?	France
What is another name for Tonga?	Friendly Islands