

Pub Quiz

Quiz 66

1. What device is used to produce the distinctive voice of Mr. Punch in a Punch and Judy show?
2. In September 1993, Jan Davis and Mark Lee became the first couple ever to get married where?
3. In Christ's parable, the fatted calf is slaughtered to provide a feast for whom?
4. The fabric 'Spandex' was so-named because it's an anagram of what word?
5. What was the speed limit on the M1 motorway when it was first opened in 1959?
6. What is nicknamed 'Black Gold'?
7. What are the first three words of the bible?
8. In April 2009, eccentric Captain Beany transformed his council flat into the Museum of Excellence for which type of food?
9. What is the museum in Southport, where you can see a Greens Zephyr, a British Anzani and a Ransomes Mukti Blade, dedicated to?
10. What type of museum is in Cumberland and is home to the biggest coloured one in the world, which measures 7.91 metres in length?
11. What does James Brown of Eastwood, Nottinghamshire have in his museum, all of which he can recognise by their sound only?
12. 650 items of which type of furniture are fought over in the House of Commons?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Pub Quiz

Quiz 66

1. What device is used to produce the distinctive voice of Mr. Punch in a Punch and Judy show?
2. In September 1993, Jan Davis and Mark Lee became the first couple ever to get married where?
3. In Christ's parable, the fatted calf is slaughtered to provide a feast for whom?
4. The fabric 'Spandex' was so-named because it's an anagram of what word?
5. What was the speed limit on the M1 motorway when it was first opened in 1959?
6. What is nicknamed 'Black Gold'?
7. What are the first three words of the bible?
8. In April 2009, eccentric Captain Beany transformed his council flat into the Museum of Excellence for which type of food?
9. What is the museum in Southport, where you can see a Greens Zephyr, a British Anzani and a Ransomes Mukti Blade, dedicated to?
10. What type of museum is in Cumberland and is home to the biggest coloured one in the world, which measures 7.91 metres in length?
11. What does James Brown of Eastwood, Nottinghamshire have in his museum, all of which he can recognise by their sound only?
12. 650 items of which type of furniture are fought over in the House of Commons?

Quizmaster Answers

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---------------------|
| 1. Swazzle | 7. In The Beginning |
| 2. In space | 8. Baked Beans |
| 3. The Prodigal Son | 9. Lawnmowers |
| 4. Expands | 10. Pencil |
| 5. There was no speed limit | 11. Vacuum Cleaners |
| 6. Oil | 12. Seats |