

Pub Quiz

Quiz 70

1. The oldest man in the Bible was Methuselah; how old was he said to have been when he died?
2. With which company would you associate Aleksandr Orlov?
3. Whose controversial portrait of Winston Churchill was later destroyed by Lady Churchill?
4. What was the most common name given to a goldfish by English Kids in the early 1980s?
5. Which scientist said that 'a scientific man ought to have no wishes, no affections - a mere heart of stone'?
6. 'The Ambassadors' is considered to be the masterpiece of which American novelist?
7. By what name was the Swiss-born French architect Charles Edouard Jeanneret better known?
8. King Camp Gillette patented the safety razor in 1895; who in 1931 patented and marketed the first electric razor?
9. What name is given to a plant that retains its leaves all year round?
10. Deltiology is the study and collection of what? Matchboxes, Postcards or Thimbles?
11. Which of the Twelve Apostles, who is traditionally called the first bishop of Rome, was the brother of Saint Andrew?
12. What is the one-word English translation of the title of the Renaissance masterpiece Primavera, by Sandro Botticelli?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Pub Quiz

Quiz 70

1. The oldest man in the Bible was Methuselah; how old was he said to have been when he died?
2. With which company would you associate Aleksandr Orlov?
3. Whose controversial portrait of Winston Churchill was later destroyed by Lady Churchill?
4. What was the most common name given to a goldfish by English Kids in the early 1980s?
5. Which scientist said that 'a scientific man ought to have no wishes, no affections - a mere heart of stone'?
6. 'The Ambassadors' is considered to be the masterpiece of which American novelist?
7. By what name was the Swiss-born French architect Charles Edouard Jeanneret better known?
8. King Camp Gillette patented the safety razor in 1895; who in 1931 patented and marketed the first electric razor?
9. What name is given to a plant that retains its leaves all year round?
10. Deltiology is the study and collection of what? Matchboxes, Postcards or Thimbles?
11. Which of the Twelve Apostles, who is traditionally called the first bishop of Rome, was the brother of Saint Andrew?
12. What is the one-word English translation of the title of the Renaissance masterpiece Primavera, by Sandro Botticelli?

Quizmaster Answers

- |                         |                         |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. 969 years old        | 7. Le Corbusier         |
| 2. CompareTheMarket.com | 8. Colonel Jacob Schick |
| 3. Graham Sutherland    | 9. Evergreen            |
| 4. Jaws                 | 10. Postcards           |
| 5. Charles Darwin       | 11. Saint Peter         |
| 6. Henry James          | 12. Spring              |