

Pub Quiz

Quiz 73

1. Which floating object is used to mark channels for shipping?
2. Which French word, meaning 'bottom of the bag', is used to describe a dead end?
3. As what were dissident group the True Levellers also known?
4. A roe deer of less than a year old is known by what name?
5. Which US President was a peanut farmer?
6. Which number system uses combinations of just the digits 1 and 0?
7. Which colour can be preceded by the word shocking?
8. What type of person would have a 'nom de plume'?
9. Franglais is a mixture of which two languages?
10. Which branch of the scouts takes children between the ages of eight and ten-and-a-half?
11. What type of professional would belong to RIBA?
12. In which year were GCSEs first awarded?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Pub Quiz

Quiz 73

1. Which floating object is used to mark channels for shipping?
2. Which French word, meaning 'bottom of the bag', is used to describe a dead end?
3. As what were dissident group the True Levellers also known?
4. A roe deer of less than a year old is known by what name?
5. Which US President was a peanut farmer?
6. Which number system uses combinations of just the digits 1 and 0?
7. Which colour can be preceded by the word shocking?
8. What type of person would have a 'nom de plume'?
9. Franglais is a mixture of which two languages?
10. Which branch of the scouts takes children between the ages of eight and ten-and-a-half?
11. What type of professional would belong to RIBA?
12. In which year were GCSEs first awarded?

Quizmaster Answers

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------|
| 1. Buoy | 7. Pink |
| 2. Cul-de-sac | 8. Authors (Pen Name) |
| 3. The Diggers | 9. French and English |
| 4. Fawn | 10. Cubs |
| 5. Jimmy Carter | 11. Architects |
| 6. Binary | 12. 1986 established / 1987 first sat |