

Sport

Tennis Quiz 6

1. Which South American champion beat Margaret Smith in the 1964 ladies' final, one of the greatest women's matches?
2. The extraordinary players' strike in 1973 was in support of which player, who had been banned by his own national association?
3. What year did Tim Henman retire from Tennis?
4. Gigi Fernández won five doubles titles in the 1990s with which hard-hitting Russian player?
5. Leander Paes won the 2003 mixed doubles competition partnered by which 46 year old?
6. Which pop singer entertained the crowd by singing during a rain break in 1996?
7. Which emotional and popular player came to the 2001 Wimbledon tournament supposedly past-it and unseeded but won?
8. By what nickname was the triple ladies' winner from the 1950s, Maureen Connolly, better known?
9. Who played out a 34-point tie-break in the 1980 final, one of tennis's great matches?
10. Which brother and sister partnership won the mixed doubles title at Wimbledon 1980?
11. Which teenage tennis sensation went off the rails, but survived shoplifting and minor drug arrests to return and win two grand slam titles in 2001?
12. Which annual tennis tournament is the oldest in the world?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Scan me
for more quizzes

Sport

Tennis Quiz 6

1. Which South American champion beat Margaret Smith in the 1964 ladies' final, one of the greatest women's matches?
2. The extraordinary players' strike in 1973 was in support of which player, who had been banned by his own national association?
3. What year did Tim Henman retire from Tennis?
4. Gigi Fernández won five doubles titles in the 1990s with which hard-hitting Russian player?
5. Leander Paes won the 2003 mixed doubles competition partnered by which 46 year old?
6. Which pop singer entertained the crowd by singing during a rain break in 1996?
7. Which emotional and popular player came to the 2001 Wimbledon tournament supposedly past-it and unseeded but won?
8. By what nickname was the triple ladies' winner from the 1950s, Maureen Connolly, better known?
9. Who played out a 34-point tie-break in the 1980 final, one of tennis's great matches?
10. Which brother and sister partnership won the mixed doubles title at Wimbledon 1980?
11. Which teenage tennis sensation went off the rails, but survived shoplifting and minor drug arrests to return and win two grand slam titles in 2001?
12. Which annual tennis tournament is the oldest in the world?

Quizmaster Answers

- | | |
|------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. Maria Bueno | 7. Goran Ivanišević |
| 2. Nikola Pilić | 8. Little Mo |
| 3. 2007 (23 September) | 9. Bjorn Borg v John McEnroe |
| 4. Natasha Zvereva | 10. John and Tracy Austin |
| 5. Martina Navratilova | 11. Jennifer Capriati |
| 6. Cliff Richard | 12. Wimbledon |

Scan me
for more quizzes

