Science and Nature

Technology Quiz 2

1. What new technology was jointly launched in March 1983 by the record companies Sony, Phillips and Phonogram?

2. In computer terms what do the letters RAM stand for?

3. What is the name of the voice-activated intelligent assistant used in Amazon's Echo smart speakers?

4. A dialysis machine is used as a substitute for which organ?

5. Former space shuttle landing site Edwards Air Force Base is in which American state?

6. Which glasses have lenses with two different focuses?

7. The first spacecraft to orbit Jupiter was named after which Italian scientist?

8. What company did Bill Gates found?

9. What very small amount of time is abbreviated to 'NS'?

10. What does a HOLTER MONITOR check?

11. In computer gaming acronyms, what does R stand for in RPG?

12. WHAT are the four forces that act on an aeroplane in flight?

Name / Team Name	Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Scan me for more quizzes

Science and Nature

Technology Quiz 2

1. What new technology was jointly launched in March 1983 by the record companies Sony, Phillips and Phonogram?

2. In computer terms what do the letters RAM stand for?

3. What is the name of the voice-activated intelligent assistant used in Amazon's Echo smart speakers?

4. A dialysis machine is used as a substitute for which organ?

5. Former space shuttle landing site Edwards Air Force Base is in which American state?

6. Which glasses have lenses with two different focuses?

7. The first spacecraft to orbit Jupiter was named after which Italian scientist?

8. What company did Bill Gates found?

9. What very small amount of time is abbreviated to 'NS'?

10. What does a HOLTER MONITOR check?

11. In computer gaming acronyms, what does R stand for in RPG?

12. WHAT are the four forces that act on an aeroplane in flight?

Quizmaster Answers

1. The Compact Disc
2. Random Access Memory
3. Alexa
4. Kidney
5. California
6. Bifocal lenses
7. Galileo
8. Microsoft
9. Nanosecond
10. Heart activity
11. Role
12. Weight, thrust, drag and lift

Scan me for more quizzes