QUESTION	ANSWER	DID YOU KNOW?
1. Booth shows up at Brennan's lecture at 'which' University in Washington?	1. American University	 The Theme Song Was Created by The Crystal Method  That catchy opening music? It was composed by The Crystal Method, an electronic music duo known for their work in film and TV.
2. Angela learns from Zack that 'who' is extremely wealthy and that his family are the single biggest donors to the 'what'?	2. Jack / Jeffersonian
3. As they prepare to leave for a banquet, Dr. Goodman notes Angela's distress over her job and comforts her by telling her that she gives the victims back their 'what' and 'what', not 'death masks'?	3. Faces / Identities
4. When Angela persuades Brennan to stop working and go to a club with her, Brennan inadvertently starts a fight by describing the music as 'what'?	4. Tribal
5. During a fight at a club, Brennan kicks a man who falls against a wall and breaks it, revealing a hidden 'what' inside and disperses a cloud of methamphetamine onto the dance floor which doses Angela and Brennan as well?	5. Mummy
6. Booth and Brennan have an argument about Booth's refusal to approve Brennan's application to be allowed to do 'what' as she was formerly charged with a felony?	6. Carry a concealed weapon
7. Booth is approached by new lawyer, Amy Morton who tells Booth she is representing death-row-inmate Howard Epps asking for his help to prove Epps innocence. How long do they have before Epps is scheduled to be executed?	7. 30 hours	 Emily Deschanel's Pregnancy Was Written Into the Show  When Deschanel became pregnant in real life, the writers wrote it into Brennan's storyline — which led to the birth of Christine, Booth and Brennan's daughter.
8. Dr. Michael Stires the former professor of 'who' from Northwestern University, dropped by for a visit?	8. Brennan's
9. What does Zack trigger while cutting through a skeleton on December 23, while the company Christmas Party is going on upstairs?	9. The bio-hazard alarm

11. How old was Brennan when her parents disappeared?	11. 15	 Real Science Advisors Helped Keep It Accurate  The show employed real forensic consultants to keep the science (somewhat) grounded — although they definitely added dramatic flair for TV.
12. Booth enters Brennan's office and waits as she awkwardly answers questions about her new book, 'called what', in a television interview on Wake Up, DC!?	12. Bred in the Bone	 Some Cases Were Inspired by True Events  A few episodes drew from real-life forensic cases, including obscure methods and rare causes of death.
		 The Lab Set Was Fully Functional (Sort Of)  The Jeffersonian's lab set was one of the most detailed on TV, with working monitors, tools, and even functioning skeleton rigs — though nothing actually did forensic science.
		 Temperance Brennan Was Also a Novelist — Like Her Creator  In the show, Brennan writes crime novels featuring a fictional character named Kathy Reichs — a meta nod to the real author who inspired it all!
