

Bones Season 10 Quiz 2

Pub Quiz Time!

12 questions, 12 chances to score!
Pen, pint, and NO Googling!

1. What is the motive behind the murder in the episode "The Baker in the Bits"?
2. What key technology plays a role in solving the case in "The Eye in the Sky"?
3. Why does the team travel outside the U.S. during one investigation?
4. How is Arastoo Vaziri personally involved in the episode "The Murder in the Middle East"?
5. In "The Woman in the Whirlpool", what unusual obsession did the victim have?
6. Booth risks a relapse of his gambling addiction by going undercover in what kind of game?
7. The death of a TV celebrity chef leads Booth and Brennan to investigate which local restaurant, frequently visited by the Jeffersonian team?
8. In an investigation at a private high school, Booth and Brennan learn the victim made her death look like a murder for what reason?
9. After Brennan asks Booth to leave due to his addiction struggles, what support group does he join?
10. How does Booth react upon discovering Brennan applied for jobs in secret?
11. What is Hodgins' response when Angela tells him she found his stolen money?
12. Who is ultimately revealed as the murderer in the season's final episode?

Name /
Team Name

Score

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

Scan me for more quizzes

| QUESTION | ANSWER | DID YOU KNOW? |
|---|--|---|
| 1. What is the motive behind the murder in the episode "The Baker in the Bits"? | 1. Theft of a secret recipe |  The Show's Working Title Was Originally Different - Before settling on Bones, the series had working titles like "The Forensic Anthropologist" and "Body of Evidence." |
| 2. What key technology plays a role in solving the case in "The Eye in the Sky"? | 2. Surveillance cameras | |
| 3. Why does the team travel outside the U.S. during one investigation? | 3. To assist in an international case involving Arastoo's family |  Emily Deschanel Read Kathy Reichs' Books to Prepare for Her Role - She immersed herself in the source material to better portray a forensic anthropologist. |
| 4. How is Arastoo Vaziri personally involved in the episode "The Murder in the Middle East"? | 4. His cousin is implicated in the murder | |
| 5. In "The Woman in the Whirlpool", what unusual obsession did the victim have? | 5. Collecting cookie jars | |
| 6. Booth risks a relapse of his gambling addiction by going undercover in what kind of game? | 6. Underground poker game | |
| 7. The death of a TV celebrity chef leads Booth and Brennan to investigate which local restaurant, frequently visited by the Jeffersonian team? | 7. The Royal Diner |  The Show's Dialogue Often Included Real Forensic Terms - Writers made an effort to incorporate accurate jargon to enhance credibility. |
| 8. In an investigation at a private high school, Booth and Brennan learn the victim made her death look like a murder for what reason? | 8. So the girls who bullied her would be blamed for her death | |
| 9. After Brennan asks Booth to leave due to his addiction struggles, what support group does he join? | 9. Gamblers Anonymous | |
| 10. How does Booth react upon discovering Brennan applied for jobs in secret? | 10. He feels blindsided |  The Show's Creator, Hart Hanson, Based Brennan Partly on Kathy Reichs - He drew inspiration from Reichs' career and books. |
| 11. What is Hodgins' response when Angela tells him she found his stolen money? | 11. He insists the money be donated to charity | |
| 12. Who is ultimately revealed as the murderer in the season's final episode? | 12. Leelah Strawn (a former associate of Christopher Pelant) | |
| | |  The Show Featured Many Complex Moral Dilemmas - Cases often challenged the team's ethical boundaries, adding depth to the storytelling. |
| | |  David Boreanaz's Character Booth Often Uses Military Terminology - This reflects Booth's backstory as a former Army sniper and adds realism to his dialogue. |