QUESTION	ANSWER	DID YOU KNOW?
1. What type of shark do they find first?	1. A juvenile great white shark (10 ft)	1. 🏢 SeaWorld gave permission but distanced itself later. - SeaWorld allowed filming in its Orlando park, hoping for positive exposure. But after the movie's release, it distanced itself from the film due to its violent content and portrayal of a park attack.
2. What do the dolphins Cindy and Sandy do to help Mike and Kay?	2. Rescue them from the shark	2. 🗣️ Lea Thompson made her film debut. - Before Back to the Future, Lea Thompson made her big screen debut in Jaws 3-D, playing Kelly Ann Bukowski.
3. What does Kay suggest instead of killing the shark?	3. Capture and display the shark alive	3. 🎬 It had a different original title. - The film was originally titled "Jaws 3: People o", meant to be a spoof of the franchise, but Universal ultimately chose to make a serious sequel in 3D instead.
4. What happens after they try to exhibit the juvenile shark?	4. The shark dies	4. 🗣️ It was nominated for a Razzie. - Jaws 3-D received a Golden Raspberry Award (Razzie) nomination for Worst Picture, and while it didn't win, it's still remembered as one of the more notorious entries in the series.
5. Who persuades Sean to go out on the water despite his fears?	5. Kelly Ann Bukowski	5. 🗣️ It featured actual SeaWorld branding. - Unlike many films that use fictional theme parks, Jaws 3-D used real SeaWorld logos and uniforms, making it feel more like an unofficial SeaWorld commercial — albeit one with a giant killer shark.
6. What confirms the presence of a second, larger shark in the park?	6. Overman's corpse shows injuries from a much larger shark	6. 🗣️ The floating severed arm? A 3D gag. - One of the most infamous 3D moments is a severed arm "floating" toward the screen. While it was designed to thrill audiences, it's now remembered for looking more awkward than scary.
7. How long is the larger shark?	7. 35 feet (11 meters)
8. Where does the larger shark first visibly appear to the public?	8. At the window of the underwater café
9. What happens to Kelly during the shark attack?	9. She is injured
10. What part of the park nearly floods due to the shark's rampage?	10. The underwater tunnel
11. What do FitzRoyce and Jack Tate attempt to do with the shark?	11. Lure the shark into a filtration pipe
12. How does FitzRoyce end up trapped?	12. His rope snaps and he's stuck inside
