(2002)

3 Rounds
36 Questions

Round 1

1. In what year does FBI agent Will Graham first visit Hannibal Lecter?

2. What is Hannibal Lecter's profession?

3. What type of criminal case is Will Graham working on when he consults Lecter?

4. What specific evidence leads Graham to suspect Lecter is the killer?

5. How does Lecter attack Graham during their confrontation?

6. What weapon does Graham use to defend himself against Lecter?

7. What is the verdict in Lecter's trial?

8. Where is Lecter imprisoned after the trial?

9. What does Graham do after his traumatic experience with Lecter?

10. What nickname is given to the new serial killer who emerges years later?

11. How many families has the "Tooth Fairy" murdered at the start of the new investigation?

12. What is the common timing related to the murders committed by the Tooth Fairy?

Round 2

1. Who persuades Will Graham to return to work on the new case?

2. What reason does Graham give for consulting Lecter again?

3. What is the real name of the Tooth Fairy?

4. What painting inspires the Tooth Fairy's alternate personality?

5. What is the name of the Tooth Fairy's alternate personality?

6. Where is the painting that inspires the Tooth Fairy located?

7. What tattoo does the Tooth Fairy have on his back?

8. What is the source of the Tooth Fairy's psychopathology?

9. Where is the letter from the Tooth Fairy found?

10. What does the Tooth Fairy's letter to Lecter express?

11. Who deciphers Lecter's reply to the Tooth Fairy?

12. What crucial information is revealed in Lecter's reply?

Round 3

1. What does Graham do to lure out the Tooth Fairy?

2. Who is Freddy Lounds?

3. How does the Tooth Fairy punish Freddy Lounds?

4. Where does Francis Dolarhyde work?

5. Who is Reba McClane?

6. What disability does Reba McClane have?

7. What does Dolarhyde do to the Blake painting at the Brooklyn Museum?

8. How does Graham realize the Tooth Fairy must be a Chromalux employee?

9. Who does Dolarhyde kill at Chromalux?

10. How does Dolarhyde's relationship with Reba end?

11. How is Dolarhyde's staged death discovered?

12. How does the final confrontation between Graham and Dolarhyde end?

📺 Did You Know? 🎬

🎬 Red Dragon is a prequel to The Silence of the Lambs and the third film featuring Hannibal Lecter.

👮 Edward Norton plays FBI profiler Will Graham, who seeks Lecter's help to catch the "Tooth Fairy."

👾 Ralph Fiennes stars as the terrifying "Tooth Fairy" killer, Francis Dolarhyde.

🔍 The film explores the psychological battle between hunter and hunted.

🎨 The title refers to the William Blake painting The Great Red Dragon and the Woman Clothed with the Sun, central to the killer's obsession.

🎥 Brett Ratner, director of Rush Hour, directed Red Dragon.

🕯️ The movie is praised for its tense atmosphere and psychological depth.

⏳ It's the first film to show Lecter before the events of The Silence of the Lambs.

💰 Red Dragon grossed over $209 million worldwide.

🕵️ Edward Norton researched FBI profiling techniques to prepare for his role as Will Graham.

🦷 The nickname "Tooth Fairy" comes from Dolarhyde's brutal bite marks on his victims.

🧩 The film includes several references to The Silence of the Lambs, tying the stories together.

🖼️ The Blake painting featured in the film is a real artwork housed at the Brooklyn Museum.

💔 Reba McClane's blindness is symbolic of Dolarhyde's struggle to connect with the world.

🖊️ Freddy Lounds was inspired by real-life tabloid journalists.

👁️ Close-up shots of eyes are used throughout the film to emphasize psychological insight.

🏆 Ralph Fiennes' performance as Dolarhyde was critically acclaimed despite mixed reviews of the film.

🎭 The film explores the psychological toll of violence on both victims and perpetrators.

ANSWERS

ROUND 1

1. 1980
2. Forensic psychiatrist
3. Serial killer case
4. A bookmarked sweetbreads recipe with organs taken from victims
5. Lecter stabs Graham
6. Graham stabs Lecter with arrowheads and shoots him
7. Not guilty by reason of insanity
8. Institution for the criminally insane
9. Retires to Florida with his family
10. The Tooth Fairy
11. Two families (the Jacobis and the Leedses)
12. Murders occur during full moons

ROUND 3

1. Gives a disparaging interview to Freddy Lounds about the killer
2. A reporter for the National Tattler
3. Kidnaps him, glues him to a wheelchair, forces a recantation, and burns him alive
4. Chromalux, a home video conversion business in St. Louis
5. A blind co-worker at Chromalux
6. Blindness
7. Tears it apart and eats it
8. Because the killer knew the victims' house layouts from home videos
9. Ralph Mandy
10. Dolarhyde kidnaps her, sets his house on fire, tries to kill her but fails; she escapes
11. Autopsy reveals Ralph Mandy's body was used to fake Dolarhyde's death
12. Graham and Dolarhyde shoot each other; Dolarhyde is finally killed by Molly Graham

ROUND 2

1. Special agent Jack Crawford
2. The Tooth Fairy has "no face" and no clear victim selection pattern
3. Francis Dolarhyde
4. The William Blake painting "The Great Red Dragon and the Woman Clothed with the Sun"
5. The Great Red Dragon
6. Brooklyn Museum
7. A tattoo of the Great Red Dragon and the Woman Clothed with the Sun
8. Childhood abuse by his grandmother
9. In Lecter's prison cell
10. Admiration for Lecter and suggestion to reply through the personals section of the National Tattler
11. Lloyd Bowman
12. Will Graham's home address

Follow me online @

https://linktr.ee/seanjameshill

🐉 Before the Silence... There Was a Dragon in the Dark.
Do you remember the man who found Hannibal Lecter... and the killer who made him return?

He almost died.
He walked away.
But evil doesn't stay buried — it evolves, paints its face with blood, and waits for the moon to rise.

🔍 The Red Dragon (2002) Quiz Book — test your memory, your instincts, and your will to face what lurks behind mirrors.

📸 What did the Tooth Fairy see in his victims — and in himself?
🖼️ What masterpiece was he becoming, one body at a time?
🧠 How did Lecter play both puppet and puppeteer — again?
👃 And what did Will Graham smell... that no one else could?

From shattered mirrors and family portraits 🔯 to the razor-thin line between madness and method 🔪, this quiz book pulls you back to the beginning — when Lecter was still behind bars, and the cost of catching a killer was your soul.

Whether you're a profiler in training 🧬, a fan of forensic thrills 🧤, or someone who's looked into the red eyes of obsession 🔥 — your knowledge will be tested, and your empathy strained.

You caught the killer.
But what did it cost you to see him? 🐉 📖

woodenspoonquizzes.co.uk
facebook.com/woodenspoonquizzes