Did You Know?

-  Sean Connery's Big Return – Connery came back to play Bond with a then-record salary.
-  The Last Official Connery Bond – This was his final EON-produced Bond film.
-   First American Bond Girl Lead – Jill St. John (Tiffany Case) became the first American lead Bond girl.
-  Las Vegas Was Basically a Character – Much of the movie was filmed in real Vegas casinos and hotels.
-  Blofeld in Multiple Guises – Charles Gray's Blofeld uses several disguises, including body doubles.
-  Wint & Kidd: Iconic and Eccentric – The strange, darkly comedic henchman duo became memorable series villains.
-  The Moon Buggy Chase Was Improvised – The crew added the chase after discovering the quirky buggy at a prop facility.
-   Shirley Bassey's Return – She performed the theme song, now one of the most sampled Bond themes.
-   The Elevator Fight – The cramped brawl with Peter Franks is one of the series' standout hand-to-hand fights.
-   A More Comedic Tone – EON leaned into camp and Vegas glamour following the more serious previous film.
