Did You Know?

1. Buffy and Cordelia almost swapped roles

Sarah Michelle Gellar auditioned for Cordelia, and Charisma Carpenter auditioned for Buffy.

2. The entire season was filmed before the premiere

Season 1 was completed before episode 1 aired, so no audience feedback influenced it.

3. The Master's eyes weren't CGI

Mark Metcalf wore thick prosthetic lenses that limited his vision.

4. Willow was recast after the unaired pilot

Alyson Hannigan replaced Riff Regan once the show was picked up.

5. Buffy's stunt double appears in many scenes

Sophie Crawford appears in lots of wide-shot fight scenes.

6. Sunnydale High is a real location

Torrance High School was also used in Beverly Hills 90210.

7. Season 1 monsters were low-budget and practical

Early creature effects relied on makeup, masks, and lighting tricks.

8. "The Pack" was nearly removed

The episode's dark plot (students eating Principal Flutie) almost got it cut.

9. Monster-of-the-Week format was a network request

Executives wanted simpler standalone episodes for easier viewing.

10. Angel was almost designed to look much older

He was originally conceived as visibly middle-aged.

11. The library's upper level wasn't real

The "upstairs" area was a separate set due to stability issues.

12. Buffy's jackets came from thrift shops

Budget limits meant many outfits were second-hand finds.

13. Buffy's "slayer destiny" arc was planned early

Her iconic empowerment arc was mapped out before Season 1 aired.

14. Darla was originally meant to die in episode 1

Julie Benz's performance convinced writers to keep her longer.
