Hair Day!

1. "Can I have a Rachel?" was a popular request at hair salons in the 1990s. Which actress played the U.S. sitcom character that made this hairstyle famous?
2. Known for his messy tenure in Downing Street and unruly blond locks, which ex-Prime Minister famously said, "I normally have a number 10, mate"?
3. He warned of nuclear Armageddon, but looked like his own thatch had suffered an explosion. Do you find naming him relatively easy?
4. Are they earphones or pastries? No, they're the iconic "buns" worn by Princess Leia in Star Wars. Who played this legendary character?
5. A TV host who keeps her fringe Strictly in trim. She's certainly no traitor to her trademark look, but can you recall what she is called?
6. The beehive hairstyle was a 1960s classic and later made famous again in the 2000s by which "Back to Black" singer?
7. This football star has sported many hairstyles, from curtains to cornrows and a mohawk. Who is this former England and Manchester United midfielder?
8. Known as the King of Rock 'n' Roll, famous for hits like "All Shook Up," who sported a slick-backed pompadour hairstyle?
9. Mullet! Which England and Spurs footballer was the mane man of the 1980s with the "long at the back, short at the sides" style?
10. "View to a Killer Cut" — which singer and actress wowed audiences with her flat-top hairstyle in a 1985 James Bond film, playing May Day?
11. Bobby Charlton grabbed glory at the 1966 World Cup with a combover, but which England goalie helped England win the Women's Euros in 2025 with a ponytail?
12. Even footballer Kevin Keegan tried it, but which Aussie singer and former Neighbours actress popularized the curly perm in the 1980s?
