

WOODEN SPOON QUIZZES

Crime & Punishment Quiz #03

Crafted with Care...

...Stirred to Perfection

1. Which infamous East End boozer became part of criminal history when Ronnie Kray shot George Cornell dead inside it?
2. Which trusted royal art adviser was dramatically unmasked as a Soviet spy in the 1979 book The Climate of Treason?
3. Richard John Bingham vanished without a trace in 1974 — but what name made him tabloid royalty?
4. Prisoners accused of treason were ferried into the Tower of London through which ominously named gateway?
5. Which high-ranking Nazi stunned the world by ending up briefly imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1941?
6. Roughly how many victims are attributed to the world's most prolific known serial killer?
7. Which notorious gang was responsible for killing police officers Wheeler and Murphy near Grapevine, Texas, on April 1, 1934?
8. According to the FBI, what officially makes someone a serial killer?
9. True or False: Crucifixion is still legally used as a method of capital punishment in Saudi Arabia.
10. Leonard 'Nipper' Read led the investigation that finally brought which notorious East End criminals to justice?
11. Curfew tags and location tags are commonly used in UK criminal cases — what's the third type?
12. "Penose" describes the organised criminal underworld of which European country?

QUIZMASTER

Crime & Punishment Quiz #03

Crafted with Care...

...Stirred to Perfection

QUESTIONS

1. Which infamous East End boozer became part of criminal history when Ronnie Kray shot George Cornell dead inside it?
2. Which trusted royal art adviser was dramatically unmasked as a Soviet spy in the 1979 book The Climate of Treason?
3. Richard John Bingham vanished without a trace in 1974 — but what name made him tabloid royalty?
4. Prisoners accused of treason were ferried into the Tower of London through which ominously named gateway?
5. Which high-ranking Nazi stunned the world by ending up briefly imprisoned in the Tower of London in 1941?
6. Roughly how many victims are attributed to the world's most prolific known serial killer?
7. Which notorious gang was responsible for killing police officers Wheeler and Murphy near Grapevine, Texas, on April 1, 1934?
8. According to the FBI, what officially makes someone a serial killer?
9. True or False: Crucifixion is still legally used as a method of capital punishment in Saudi Arabia.
10. Leonard 'Nipper' Read led the investigation that finally brought which notorious East End criminals to justice?
11. Curfew tags and location tags are commonly used in UK criminal cases — what's the third type?
12. "Penose" describes the organised criminal underworld of which European country?

ANSWERS

1. The Blind Beggar
2. Anthony Blunt
3. Lord Lucan
4. Traitors' Gate
5. Rudolf Hess
6. Approximately 250 (Harold Shipman)
7. The Barrow Gang
8. A person who kills two or more people in separate events, typically with a cooling-off period between murders
9. True
10. The Kray Twins
11. Alcohol tags
12. The Netherlands

FUN FACTS

1. 🚫 George Cornell was shot at The Blind Beggar in 1966, a crime that increased pressure on police to act against the Krays.
2. 🕵️ Anthony Blunt was part of the Cambridge Five and was publicly exposed as a spy in Parliament in 1979.
3. 🕵️ Lord Lucan disappeared in 1974 after the murder of his children's nanny and was declared dead in 2016.
4. 🏰 Traitors' Gate allowed prisoners to be taken directly into the Tower of London from the River Thames.
5. 🏰 Rudolf Hess was the last prisoner ever held in the Tower of London.
6. 📄 An official inquiry concluded Harold Shipman likely killed around 250 patients.
7. 🚗 The Barrow Gang, led by Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow, killed at least 13 people during their crime spree.
8. 🔍 The FBI lowered the minimum number of victims in its serial killer definition from three to two in 2005.
9. 🏴 Saudi law permits crucifixion as a post-execution public display.
10. 🚔 Nipper Read's investigation led to the Kray twins' convictions in 1969.
11. 🍷 Alcohol tags detect drinking by monitoring alcohol through the skin.
12. 🌿 "Penose" is a Dutch term for organised criminal networks, particularly linked to drug trafficking.

