Round 1

The Great Easter Brain Teaser

1. Which miracle lies at the heart of Easter Sunday in the Christian calendar?
2. Beginning on Ash Wednesday, what is the 40-day period of fasting and reflection leading up to Easter called?
3. Which European country is widely credited with introducing the Easter Bunny tradition?
4. On Good Friday in the UK, which spiced, fruit-filled baked treat is traditionally eaten?
5. What is the name of the Sunday that kicks off the week leading into Easter?
6. According to some historians, the word "Easter" may be linked to which pagan goddess or festival?
7. Which day of the Easter weekend marks the crucifixion of Jesus?
8. Eggs are often dyed which colour to symbolise the blood of Christ?
9. What is the name given to the final week of Lent, leading directly into Easter?
10. Which fluffy farmyard bird is commonly associated with Easter as a symbol of new life?
11. Traditionally, what do people give up during Lent as a form of sacrifice?
12. When it comes to Easter treats in the UK, which chocolatey favourite dominates the shelves every spring?

Your score this round: / 12

🐰 The name Easter is widely believed to come from Ēostre ...

...an Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring and fertility. Her festival was celebrated around the same time of year, and over time, early Christian celebrations merged with these pagan traditions—giving us the Easter we know today.

Round 2

Screen Eggs & TV Treats

1. In Hop, what job does the Easter Bunny's son dream of doing instead of delivering eggs?
2. Which animated hit features a rabbit police officer named Judy Hopps?
3. Which classic British sitcom includes the episode "The Miracle of Peckham," often watched around Easter time?
4. Which long-running UK soap is known for dramatic Easter storylines centred on family gatherings?
5. In Rise of the Guardians, who is the magical figure in charge of delivering Easter eggs?
6. In Alice in Wonderland, what is the name of the rabbit constantly checking his pocket watch?
7. Which beloved UK children's character is a small white rabbit created by Dick Bruna?
8. In Wallace & Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit, which vegetable are the rabbits obsessed with?
9. Which popular TV baking competition often serves up Easter-themed specials in the UK?
10. Which chocolatey seasonal treat is commonly used as a prize or prop in Easter-themed TV scenes?
11. In Ice Age: The Great Egg-Scapade, which character ends up stepping in as the Easter Bunny?
12. In Shrek 2, which character briefly disguises himself as the Easter Bunny to dodge capture?

● Decorating eggs isn't just a modern chocolate excuse...

...it goes back thousands of years. Ancient Persians painted eggs for Nowruz (their New Year), while early Christians later adopted eggs as a symbol of Jesus' resurrection and new life..

Round 3

🍫 Eggs, Buns & Booze

1. Which warming spice blend gives hot cross buns their distinctive Easter flavour?
2. Inside a classic Creme Egg, what type of soft, sweet filling will you find?
3. Which famous chocolate company produces Creme Eggs in the UK?
4. What roast meat is traditionally served on Easter Sunday in the UK?
5. The iconic cross on a hot cross bun is traditionally made from what simple paste?
6. What drink, made with orange juice and sparkling wine, is sometimes enjoyed at Easter gatherings?
7. Which dried fruit is commonly baked into Easter treats like hot cross buns?
8. What is the traditional topping on a simnel cake made from?
9. Which creamy liqueur is often added to chocolate-based Easter drinks or desserts?
10. What key ingredient is used to make marzipan?
11. Which traditional British drink is commonly enjoyed with cake at Easter gatherings?
12. What citrus fruit flavour is often added to simnel cake for a fresh twist?

Your score this round: / 12

◆ The first chocolate Easter eggs appeared in the UK in the early 1800s...

...but they were quite bitter and solid compared to today's treats. It wasn't until companies like Cadbury improved chocolate-making techniques that the smooth, hollow eggs we love became popular.

Round 4

Eggs-ploring Easter Around the World

1. In which country do children dress up as witches and go door-to-door collecting sweets at Easter?
2. During Easter holidays, what type of reading do Norwegians famously indulge in — turning the break into a nationwide whodunnit?
3. Which country lights up the sky with massive Easter bonfires, a tradition dating back centuries?
4. In Greece, Easter eggs are traditionally dyed which bold colour, symbolising the blood of Christ?
5. Śmigus-Dyngus — a playful water-splashing tradition — is celebrated on Easter Monday in which country?
6. In France, it's not a bunny delivering Easter eggs... but what flying alternative?
7. In Australia, which native animal is sometimes used instead of the Easter Bunny?
8. Which US city — the country's most populous — is famous for its annual Easter Parade along Fifth Avenue?
9. In Germany, what decorative item is traditionally hung on trees during Easter celebrations?
10. Which country is renowned for its dramatic Semana Santa processions during Holy Week?
11. What is the German name for the Easter Bunny?
12. Which country is famous for creating beautifully decorated Easter eggs known as "pysanky"?

 The Easter Bunny actually started as the "Osterhase" in Germany...

...a hare that would lay eggs for well-behaved children. German immigrants brought the tradition to America in the 1700s, and it slowly evolved into the chocolate-delivering bunny we know today.

Round 5

Egg-sential Easter Knowledge

1. Traditionally, how many days does the period of Lent last?
2. What is the name given to the Friday immediately before Easter Sunday?
3. Which bright yellow flower is most commonly associated with Easter in the UK?
4. What shape are Easter eggs traditionally made in?
5. In a classic egg-tapping contest, what are you trying to crack?
6. Which unusual mammal — native to Australia — lays eggs despite not being a bird?
7. What Easter activity involves decorating eggs before putting them proudly on display?
8. What is the name for the Easter season in the Christian calendar?
9. Easter can fall in which two months of the year?
10. What is the name of the traditional sweet Easter bread eaten in Italy?
11. Which symbol is most commonly associated with rebirth at Easter?
12. What is the name of the Sunday that follows Good Friday?

Your score this round: / 12

GB In the UK, hot cross buns eaten on Good Friday aren't just tasty...

...they're steeped in superstition. Some people believed buns baked that day would never go mouldy, and sailors even took them on long voyages for protection against shipwrecks.

Round 6

No Yolck...

Truth or Total Rubbish

1. Easter is one of the few holidays that lands on the exact same date every single year — nice and easy to plan around.
2. The Easter Bunny tradition actually hopped its way over from Germany.
3. Lent lasts a full 50 days of sacrifice... assuming you make it that far.
4. Hot cross buns are traditionally eaten on Good Friday — and never taste quite the same any other day.
5. Easter celebrates the birth of Jesus Christ, complete with eggs, chocolate, and the occasional hangover.
6. Eggs have long been used as a symbol of new life and rebirth during Easter celebrations.
7. The word “Easter” may have roots in ancient pagan traditions rather than Christianity.
8. Palm Sunday arrives after Easter Sunday, wrapping up the celebrations nicely.
9. Chocolate Easter eggs didn’t appear until the 19th century, when confectioners stepped up their game.
10. Good Friday is officially recognised as a public holiday across the UK.
11. The Easter Bunny does his rounds on Easter Monday, after everyone’s already eaten the chocolate.
12. Simnel cake — topped with marzipan — is a traditional Easter favourite in the UK.

● The largest Easter egg ever made stood over 10 metres tall and...

...weighed more than 7 tonnes. It was created in Italy in 2011—basically the size of a small house and probably enough chocolate to keep a pub quiz team happy for life.

Round 7

Sugar Rush Roulette

1. Only around for a short time each year, this iconic treat hides a gooey fondant centre beneath a thick chocolate shell... what is it?
2. These bite-sized Easter favourites are brightly coloured, with a crisp sugar shell hiding a chocolate centre — can you name them?
3. A classic Easter gift — this hollow chocolate creation is often boxed, wrapped, and proudly presented... what is it simply called?
4. Wrapped in gold foil and sporting a tiny bell, which famous chocolate bunny has become an Easter staple?
5. Which chocolate bar is packed with crunchy, sugar-coated chocolate pieces — essentially turning a classic Easter sweet into a shareable bar?
6. Known for its silky smooth filling, which chocolate egg is filled with rich, truffle-style chocolate?
7. Often shaped like chicks or bunnies, what marshmallow-based Easter treat (commonly imported from the US) has become a colourful seasonal favourite?
8. What do you call the classic boxed Easter product that combines a large chocolate egg with a branded chocolate bar?
9. Which chocolate egg famously comes with a toy hidden inside, making it a favourite with kids?
10. As the UK's best-selling chocolate brand, which name is most commonly seen on "medium" or "large" Easter egg gift sets in supermarkets?
11. Which Easter egg features popping candy embedded directly into the chocolate shell, often paired with Marvellous Creations bars or sweets?
12. Which seasonal chocolate treat features a thick shell that gives way to a rich, flowing caramel centre?

🐣 Rabbits and chicks became Easter symbols...

...because they're both known for rapid reproduction, making them ancient symbols of fertility and new beginnings—perfect for a spring festival celebrating life and renewal.

Round 8

12. TERREUSRCNIO

Your score this round: / 12

Easter's date is surprisingly complicated...

...it's set as the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox. This means it can fall anywhere between 22 March and 25 April, making it one of the most unpredictable holidays in the calendar.

Round 9

Easter Unwrapped

1. On Good Friday in the UK, what type of food is traditionally eaten instead of meat?
2. Which bright yellow flower is most strongly associated with Easter in the UK?
3. What is the name of the bank holiday that comes immediately after Easter Sunday?
4. What type of decorative headwear is traditionally worn during Easter parades?
5. What is the name of the 40-day period of fasting observed before Easter?
6. What is the name of the Friday that falls just before Easter Sunday?
7. What traditional Easter activity involves rolling decorated eggs down a hill to see which travels the furthest?
8. What name is given to the Thursday before Good Friday, commemorating the Last Supper?
9. What is the name of the Easter tradition where people tap eggs together to see whose remains uncracked?
10. What is the name of the full moon used to determine the date of Easter each year?
11. What is the name of the church service held late on Holy Saturday to mark the beginning of Easter?
12. In the Christian calendar, what is the name of the 50-day period that begins on Easter Sunday?

🐰 In the United States alone, over 90 million chocolate bunnies are sold each year...

...and about 75% of people eat the ears first, which feels like a slightly savage but widely accepted tradition.

Round 10

Who the Hop Am I?

1. Long ears, no wings, and somehow still delivering eggs every year... who am I?
2. Easter Sunday celebrates my return from the dead — central to Christianity... who am I?
3. I accepted 30 pieces of silver and sealed my place in Easter history for all the wrong reasons... who am I?
4. A UK public holiday marking the crucifixion — what day am I?
5. The Sunday before Easter, known for palm leaves and a grand arrival... what am I?
6. Spiced, sticky, and marked with a cross — traditionally eaten on one specific day... what am I?
7. The significant week leading up to Easter Sunday — what is it called?
8. The period of giving things up before Easter kicks off — what is it called?
9. The chocolate giant behind Mini Eggs and Creme Eggs — who am I?
10. Gold foil, a red ribbon, and a tiny bell — which famous chocolate bunny am I?
11. Kids love me — I involve running around hunting for hidden chocolate... what am I?
12. A traditional Easter cake topped with marzipan balls, often enjoyed around Mothering Sunday... what am I?

 Easter traditions vary wildly across Europe...

...in Poland, for example, Śmigus-Dyngus (Wet Monday) involves people throwing water at each other. Originally, it was said to bring good health and luck... now it's basically a nationwide water fight.
