1. 🐈 Top Cat (1961) was inspired by The Phil Silvers Show and followed smooth-talking T.C. and his alley-cat gang as they outsmarted Officer Dibble.
2. 🐕 What-a-Mess followed a clumsy Afghan Hound puppy named Prince Amir of Kinjan, whose noble name clashed hilariously with his chaotic nature.
3. 🐭 Speedy Gonzales, "the fastest mouse in all Mexico", wore a yellow sombrero and constantly ran rings around rivals like Sylvester.
4. 🎓 Tiny Toon Adventures followed younger Looney Tunes characters at Acme Looniversity — and Babs and Buster Bunny were not actually related.
5. ❤️ Bingo is Bluey's younger sister in the hugely popular Australian animated series loved for its heartwarming family stories.
6. 🧙 Gargamel was the clumsy wizard forever trying — and failing — to capture the Smurfs in their mushroom village.
7. 🍷 Arlene is Garfield's sarcastic girlfriend, often teasing him about his laziness and obsession with lasagna.
8. 🦖 The Flintstones were TV's first prime-time animated family, living in Bedrock with dinosaur-powered gadgets and foot-powered cars.
9. 🛒 Maggie Simpson's supermarket barcode scanned at $847.63 — reportedly the average cost of raising a baby in America at the time.
10. 🐕 Paw Patrol became a global preschool hit with rescue pups like Chase, Marshall, and Skye teaching teamwork through adventure.
11. 📺 The Simpsons' famous "chalkboard gag" changes almost every episode, with hundreds written over the years.
12. 🥷 The three tiny ninjas can deliver anything, anywhere — even through time itself.
