⚡ Did You Know? ⚡

In 2012, India experienced one of the largest power outages in history — affecting over 600 million people across 22 states! 😱

For two days, trains stopped, traffic lights went dark, and entire cities were left in the heat without power. It was like someone hit the world's biggest off switch. 🛑🌍

The blackout exposed major infrastructure challenges — but also sparked big conversations about modernization and energy reform.
