ONE FOR THE BAR!

12 DID YOU KNOWS! ABOUT THE TV SERIES

LUCIFER

1 Tom Ellis originally auditioned using his natural Welsh accent before the now-famous suave British Lucifer voice was chosen.

2 The nightclub Lux is inspired by a real concept from Neil Gaiman's comic universe, where Lucifer abandons Hell to run a piano bar in Los Angeles.

3 Chloe Decker's daughter Trixie was named after Beatrix Kiddo from Kill Bill.

4 Tom Ellis performed many of Lucifer's piano scenes himself and genuinely sings in several episodes throughout the series.

5 The show was originally cancelled by Fox after Season 3 before an enormous fan campaign helped save it.

CANCELLED
BY FOX

6 Fans flooded social media with the hashtag #SaveLucifer after the cancellation announcement, helping the show move to Netflix.

N

7 Lucifer's red glowing devil face effects became more detailed and cinematic after the series moved from network TV to streaming.

8 The penthouse above Lux became one of the show's most recognisable sets and appeared in nearly every season.

9 Actress Lesley-Ann Brandt, who played Maze, performed many of her own fight scenes throughout the series.

10 The pilot episode was filmed more than a year before the rest of Season 1 officially entered production.

11 The character Lucifer Morningstar was originally created by legendary comic writer Neil Gaiman for DC Comics' Sandman universe.

12 The emotional final season was heavily rewritten after production delays caused by the global COVID-19 pandemic.
