

Quiz # 7

Crafted with care.... Stirred to Perfection

1. In Norse mythology, what is the name of the hammer wielded by the god Thor?
2. In Greek legend, Damon is known for his legendary friendship with which other figure?
3. In Greek mythology, which Gorgon bore Poseidon's children Pegasus and Chrysaor?
4. In Irish mythology, what are "Bran" and "Sceolang"?
5. In Greek mythology, who was the legendary lover of Hero who swam across the Hellespont each night?
6. The legendary Beast of Bodmin Moor is said to be a large wild version of which animal?
7. In Celtic folklore, which supernatural beings are famous for their chilling wail?
8. Dating back to medieval literature, Oberon is the king of which mythical beings?
9. Who had ancient Greece swooning, was blamed for both blooming gardens and broken hearts, and could start a war just by looking fabulous?
10. According to old folklore, what fearsome creature is said to lurk beneath the waters of the River Thames?
11. Guarding the gates of the underworld in Greek mythology, what was the name of the terrifying three-headed dog?
12. In mythology, what did Prometheus steal from the gods and give to mankind?

woodenspoonquizzes.co.uk

woodenspoonquizzes

QUIZMASTER

Everything Else (A-Z)

Myths & Legends #7

Wooden Spoon Quizzes

Questions

Answers

One for the Bar!

1. In Norse mythology, what is the name of the hammer wielded by the god Thor?
2. In Greek legend, Damon is known for his legendary friendship with which other figure?
3. In Greek mythology, which Gorgon bore Poseidon's children Pegasus and Chrysaor?
4. In Irish mythology, what are "Bran" and "Sceolang"?
5. In Greek mythology, who was the legendary lover of Hero who swam across the Hellespont each night?
6. The legendary Beast of Bodmin Moor is said to be a large wild version of which animal?
7. In Celtic folklore, which supernatural beings are famous for their chilling wail?
8. Dating back to medieval literature, Oberon is the king of which mythical beings?
9. Who had ancient Greece swooning, was blamed for both blooming gardens and broken hearts, and could start a war just by looking fabulous?
10. According to old folklore, what fearsome creature is said to lurk beneath the waters of the River Thames?
11. Guarding the gates of the underworld in Greek mythology, what was the name of the terrifying three-headed dog?
12. In mythology, what did Prometheus steal from the gods and give to mankind?

1. Mjölmir
2. Pythias
3. Medusa
4. Dogs (or hounds) of the warrior Fionn mac Cumhaill
5. Leander
6. A big cat
7. Banshees
8. Fairies
9. Aphrodite
10. The Red Salamander
11. Cerberus
12. Fire

1. ⚡ Thor's hammer, Mjölmir, could shatter mountains — and always returned to his hand, making Thor almost unstoppable in Norse mythology.
2. 💛 Damon and Pythias became legendary symbols of friendship after one offered his own life as a guarantee that the other would return from a final farewell.
3. 🐉👤 In Greek myth, when Medusa was slain by Perseus, Pegasus and the warrior Chrysaor sprang fully formed from her neck.
4. 🐕👤 Bran and Sceólang were mystical hunting hounds in Irish legend, born from a woman transformed into a dog by a curse.
5. 🏠 Leander swam the sea each night to reach Hero, guided by her lamp — until a storm extinguished the light and doomed their tragic romance.
6. 🐉 Reports of the Beast of Bodmin have surfaced for decades across Cornwall, but despite investigations, the mystery has never been fully explained.
7. 👤 The banshee's eerie "keening" cry comes from ancient Irish funeral traditions, where women mourned the dead through haunting laments.
8. 🧚 Oberon was part of European folklore long before Shakespeare helped make the fairy king famous on stage.
9. 🌹 Said to have risen from sea foam, Aphrodite caused so much romantic chaos that even the gods struggled to keep their cool!
10. 🧛 Victorian Londoners loved monster stories almost as much as they loved a good scandal.
11. 🐉 Cerberus wasn't just a three-headed hound — some myths also gave him a serpent tail and snakes for a mane.
12. 🔥 Prometheus stole fire from the gods, becoming mythology's ultimate rule-breaker with a very bright idea.

