

READY MADE QUIZ NIGHT

★ THE PACK DESIGNED FOR QUIZMASTERS FOR A
READY MADE FANTASTIC QUIZ NIGHT ★

VOLUME
12

ROUND 1
ENTERTAINMENT

ROUND 2
SCIENCE AND NATURE

ROUND 3
SPORT

ROUND 4
POT LUCK

FOUR TOPICS,
A DASH OF LUCK,
LOTS OF FUN!

WOODEN SPOON
★ QUIZZES ★

PERFECT FOR
PUB QUIZZES,
FUNDRAISERS,
PARTIES & MORE!

Round 1

Entertainment

1. With a stare that could silence a classroom and a wand always at the ready — which legendary actress brought Professor Minerva McGonagall to life on the big screen?
2. It galloped across the internet and took over dance floors worldwide in 2012 — which South Korean star unleashed Gangnam Style on the planet?
3. A powerful true story of survival and injustice — which Solomon Northup adaptation took home the Best Picture Oscar in 2013?
4. Snarling vocals, swagger to spare and endless sibling rivalry — Liam Gallagher leads the charge for which Britpop giants?
5. Born in the 1930s and responsible for countless family fallouts — which tile-based word game has players fishing letters from a bag?
6. Green hair, purple suit and a very divisive performance — which infamous Batman foe was portrayed by Jared Leto in Suicide Squad?
7. When Spiceworld: The Movie rolls its final credits, which Spice Girls song plays audiences out?
8. Across the pond, what glitzy title does Strictly Come Dancing go by in the United States?
9. Since 1989, Simon Gregson has been a familiar face on Coronation Street — but what's his character's name?
10. Back in 2002, which Canadian singer-songwriter declared life was "Complicated" and launched herself onto the global stage?
11. The opening bars of The Beatles' anthem "All You Need Is Love" cleverly borrow from which country's national anthem?
12. "May the Schwartz be with you" is the unforgettable parody twist on a famous sci-fi line — but which comedy film delivered it?

Round 2

Science and Nature

1. History was made far above the clouds — what was the name of the very first dog ever blasted into space?
2. Standing upright, on lookout duty and always looking smug — the meerkat belongs to which animal family?
3. Gas lighting, electroplating and pneumatic tyres all trace their invention back to which UK city?
4. Despite the name, what type of creature is a flying fox?
5. Mount Hekla is one of Europe's most active volcanoes — in which country?
6. Before watches and smartphones, people used this ancient tool to tell the time — but what is it?
7. The "sea parrot" is better known by what name?
8. Which creature is often described as "boneless, brainless and bloodless"?
9. If a birdwatcher mentions a Dartford or a Reed, which feathered species are they talking about?
10. Straight from the hedgerows — which tree produces the edible nuts known as cobnuts?
11. It might sound mild, but German measles has a more clinical name — what is it officially known as?
12. In mammals, which type of teeth sit neatly between the incisors and the premolars?

Round 3

Sport

1. Known for passionate fans and seaside heartbreak — which English football club calls St Mary's Stadium home on matchdays?
2. A reign of leather, sweat and stubborn dominance — which British boxing legend held the WBO super-middleweight title for over a decade with a remarkable 21 successful defences?
3. Who became the first member of the British Royal Family to compete in the Olympic Games?
4. Flat season royalty — how many elite horse races make up the British series known as "The Classics"?
5. Which heavyweight boxer was known by the wonderfully odd nickname "The Ambling Alp"?
6. Before Arsène Wenger arrived at Arsenal, in which country had he managed a club?
7. In which martial art do two waza-aris add up to one ippon?
8. Bob Nudd became a multiple world champion in which sport?
9. Which circuit hosts the Italian Formula One Grand Prix?
10. British racehorse names are limited to how many characters, including spaces?
11. If you found yourself standing on a diamond, which sport would you most likely be playing?
12. In Formula One, which legendary racing team is passionately supported by the "Tifosi"?

Round 4

Pot Luck

1. Touching the clouds and dominating the skyline — in which city would you find the Burj Khalifa, the tallest building on Earth?
2. Your body clock knows when it's time to sleep, eat and wake up — a circadian rhythm repeats roughly how often?
3. One date that sent the world's economy into freefall — which year marks the Wall Street Crash: 1909, 1919 or 1929?
4. A moment that helped ignite the Civil Rights Movement — in which U.S. city was Rosa Parks arrested for refusing to give up her bus seat?
5. A slogan baked into British culture — Mr Kipling famously "makes exceedingly good..." what?
6. Chic, glossy and very French — the women's fashion magazine launched in 1937 is called Marie... what?
7. Folklore says evil spirits don't hang around when this footwear is nearby — the shoe of which animal is said to repel them?
8. Which London street turns into a bustling open-air bargain hunt every Saturday, packed with antiques, food stalls and tourists?
9. Which British hotel made history by becoming the first to give every guest room its own private bathroom?
10. How old must you be before you're legally allowed to serve as an elected local councillor in England?
11. King William II, also known as William Rufus, suffered from which long-term medical condition?
12. Which deadly weapon proved decisive at the Battle of Agincourt in 1415?

ROUND 1

1. Maggie Smith
2. Psy
3. 12 Years a Slave
4. Oasis
5. Scrabble
6. The Joker
7. The Lady Is a Vamp
8. Dancing with the Stars
9. Steve McDonald
10. Avril Lavigne
11. France — “La Marseillaise”
12. Spaceballs

One for the Bar!

1. 🗣️ Maggie Smith filmed many of her later Potter scenes while battling cancer — and still managed to terrify students and audiences alike.
2. 📺 Gangnam Style was the first YouTube video ever to hit one billion views — breaking the site’s view counter in the process.
3. 🎬 12 Years a Slave made history as the first film directed by a Black filmmaker to win Best Picture.
4. 🎸 Oasis once released a single that outsold the rest of the UK Top 20 combined — peak Britpop chaos.
5. 📺 Scrabble was originally rejected by game companies for years... proving spelling doesn’t always impress publishers.
6. 🎭 Jared Leto reportedly sent “method acting” gifts to co-stars — including some that definitely wouldn’t pass a pub quiz prize table.
7. 📺 The song cheekily sums up each Spice Girl — basically a roll call set to pop beats.
8. 🎭 Same glitter, same drama — just with more American accents and even shinier teeth.
9. 🗣️ Steve has survived more drama than most pub regulars combined — and still finds time for a pint.
10. 🎸 She was just 17 when the song hit big — making the rest of us feel wildly underachieved.
11. 🎵 The Beatles opened the song with it as a nod to global unity — proving music really is a universal language.
12. 🎬 The film proved parody can be just as quotable as the movies it pokes fun at — and fans still debate which lines are funniest.

ROUND 2

1. Laika
2. Mongooses
3. Birmingham
4. Bat
5. Iceland
6. Sundial
7. Puffin
8. Jellyfish
9. Warbler
10. Hazel
11. Rubella
12. Canines

One for the Bar!

1. 🚀 Laika orbited Earth in 1957 aboard Sputnik 2 — sadly, she was never meant to return, making her one of space exploration’s most famous pioneers.
2. 🐭 Meerkats are part of the mongoose family, not rodents — and they live in tight-knit gangs where babysitting duties are taken very seriously.
3. 🏭 The city earned its nickname “the workshop of the world” for very good, very noisy reasons.
4. 🦋 Some have wingspans up to 1.5 metres.
5. 🗣️ It was once known as the “Gateway to Hell.”
6. 😞 Completely useless in Britain 80% of the year. Invented... somewhere sunnier.
7. 🐧 Puffins mate for life... unlike most people on a lad’s holiday.
8. 🐙 Jellyfish have survived millions of years — proving you don’t actually need a brain to get by.
9. 🐦 Warblers are tiny, fast-moving birds — and frustratingly hard to spot even if you can hear them clearly.
10. 🥜 Cobnuts are basically cultivated hazelnuts — a proper British countryside snack.
11. 😞 Rubella is usually mild in kids, but can be serious during pregnancy — so not quite as harmless as the name “German measles” makes it sound!
12. 🐾 Canines are your tearing teeth — basically nature’s built-in steak knives!

ROUND 3

1. Southampton FC
2. Joe Calzaghe
3. Princess Anne
4. Five
5. Primo Carnera
6. Japan
7. Judo
8. Angling / fishing
9. Autodromo Nazionale Monza
10. Eighteen
11. Baseball
12. Scuderia Ferrari

One for the Bar!

1. 🌐 St Mary's Stadium opened in 2001, replacing The Dell — and yes, many Saints fans still swear the old ground had better luck.
2. 🥊 Joe Calzaghe retired undefeated in 2009, later beating both Bernard Hopkins and Roy Jones Jr... and then walked away without a single comeback fight.
3. 🐎 She competed in equestrian events in 1976 — and famously refused a gold-medal hug from her mum, the Queen.
4. 🏇 Winning all five is so rare that it's almost mythical in modern racing.
5. 🥊 He stood over 6 ft 5 in and once fought more than 100 professional bouts.
6. 🌐 Before North London, Wenger managed Nagoya Grampus Eight in Japan — a club name that sounds like it belongs in a quiz all by itself.
7. 🥋 In judo, two waza-aris make an ippon, proving even martial arts has a “two halves make a whole” moment.
8. 🎣 Bob Nudd is a fishing legend, proving you can become world class at sitting very still with extreme purpose.
9. 🏎️ Monza is known as the “Temple of Speed”, which sounds dramatic until you remember it's mostly cars going very, very fast.
10. 🐎 Racehorse names are limited to 18 characters, which explains why owners have to get creative instead of naming one “Steve From The Pub”
11. ⚾️ Baseball's “diamond” is the infield — sadly, standing in one does not usually make you rich.
12. 🏎️ Ferrari's Tifosi are among the loudest fans in motorsport — win or lose, the red shirts are not going quietly.

ROUND 4

1. Dubai
2. About 24 hours
3. 1929
4. Montgomery
5. Cakes
6. Claire
7. A horse
8. Portobello Road
9. The Goring
10. 18
11. Asthma
12. The longbow

One for the Bar!

1. 🇦🇪 The Burj Khalifa is so tall that residents near the top break their Ramadan fast later than people on the ground — the sun literally sets later up there.
2. 🕒 Circadian rhythms are so powerful that jet lag is basically your body throwing a tantrum over a confused clock.
3. 📉 The 1929 crash helped trigger the Great Depression — proving markets really can fall faster than a pub quiz team after round three.
4. 🇺🇸 Rosa Parks was just 42 years old at the time — and her single act of defiance sparked a movement that changed history.
5. 🇬🇧 Mr Kipling's slogan dates back to the 1960s and is so well known it's been voted one of Britain's most recognisable advertising lines.
6. 🇫🇷 Marie Claire began life in France but now has editions in over 30 countries — fashion truly knows no borders.
7. 🐎 The horseshoe tradition dates back centuries — usually hung above doors for luck... preferably the right way up, depending who you ask.
8. 🇬🇧 It's one of the world's largest antique markets — and the only place where haggling is practically an Olympic sport.
9. 🏨 Long before luxury went mainstream, this hotel was already spoiling its guests rotten.
10. 🚗 You can help run your local area before you're even old enough to rent a car.
11. 🏰 Medieval kings didn't have inhalers — which made battlefield leadership even more hardcore.
12. 🏹 English archers fired so many arrows that some accounts say the sky briefly went dark.