

1. What breed of dog was Shep, the loyal companion who frequently appeared alongside presenter John Noakes on the classic children's TV show Blue Peter?
2. The Soup Dragon was a friendly and much-loved character in which iconic children's television series of the 1960s and 1970s?
3. In the animated series Bob the Builder, what is the name of Bob's mischievous pet cat?
4. Broadcast from 1978 to 2008, which long-running children's television drama was set in a comprehensive school in the fictional London borough of Northam?
5. Zsa Zsa the cat and Kiki the frog were memorable puppet characters from which popular 1960s children's television show?
6. Which children's TV drama featured David Peachey and later Ryan Watson as a boy with the extraordinary ability to stop time?
7. Which squeaky puppet became a familiar face in the Children's BBC Broom Cupboard during the 1980s and early 1990s?
8. In Grange Hill, by what nickname was the character Norman Stebson better known?
9. Which children's television show was set in Mr Grimes' Toy Factory, where a group of toys would come to life?
10. Which children's television programme featured the colourful trio of Zippy, Bungle and George?
11. Who is the daughter of Fred and Wilma Flintstone in the classic animated series The Flintstones?
12. 'Nogbad the Bad' was the villainous nemesis in which children's television series?

QUESTIONS

1. What breed of dog was Shep, the loyal companion who frequently appeared alongside presenter John Noakes on the classic children's TV show Blue Peter?
2. The Soup Dragon was a friendly and much-loved character in which iconic children's television series of the 1960s and 1970s?
3. In the animated series Bob the Builder, what is the name of Bob's mischievous pet cat?
4. Broadcast from 1978 to 2008, which long-running children's television drama was set in a comprehensive school in the fictional London borough of Northam?
5. Zsa Zsa the cat and Kiki the frog were memorable puppet characters from which popular 1960s children's television show?
6. Which children's TV drama featured David Peachey and later Ryan Watson as a boy with the extraordinary ability to stop time?
7. Which squeaky puppet became a familiar face in the Children's BBC Broom Cupboard during the 1980s and early 1990s?
8. In Grange Hill, by what nickname was the character Norman Stebson better known?
9. Which children's television show was set in Mr Grimes' Toy Factory, where a group of toys would come to life?
10. Which children's television programme featured the colourful trio of Zippy, Bungle and George?
11. Who is the daughter of Fred and Wilma Flintstone in the classic animated series The Flintstones?
12. 'Nogbad the Bad' was the villainous nemesis in which children's television series?

ANSWERS

1. Border Collie
2. The Clangers
3. Pilchard
4. Grange Hill
5. Hector's House
6. Bernard's Watch
7. Gordon the Gopher
8. Gripper
9. The Raggy Dolls
10. Rainbow
11. Pebbles Flintstone
12. Noggin the Nog

ONE FOR THE BAR!

1. 🐕 Shep became so popular with viewers that he was almost as famous as John Noakes himself.
2. 🌊 The Soup Dragon spoke in a distinctive mumbling voice and lived inside a soup-filled crater on the Clangers' planet.
3. 🐟 Pilchard's name comes from a type of fish, making it a fitting name for a cat.
4. 🏠 More than 5,000 children appeared in Grange Hill during its 30-year run.
5. 🇫🇷 Hector's House was originally produced in France and dubbed into English, which explains the characters' distinctive names and accents.
6. ⌚ The magical pocket watch in Bernard's Watch could stop time for everyone except Bernard.
7. 🐹 Despite his name, Gordon the Gopher was actually a hand puppet rather than a real gopher.
8. 🗣️ Gripper Stebson became one of the most infamous school bullies in British television history and remains one of Grange Hill's most memorable characters.
9. 🎵 The show's catchy theme tune was sung by Neil Innes, a musician and comedian who also worked closely with Monty Python.
10. 🗨️ Zippy's mouth was usually zipped shut because he never seemed to know when to stop talking.
11. 😊 Pebbles was introduced during the fourth season and quickly became one of the show's most popular characters.
12. 👑 Despite being the villain, Nogbad the Bad became one of the most memorable characters in the series and was constantly plotting to steal Noggin's throne.

