| 1. "That money was just resting in my account!" | 7. "It doesn't matter what day it is, Father. There is always time for a nice cup of tea! Didn't our Lord Himself on the cross pause for a nice cup of tea before giving Himself up for the world?" |
| 2. "Go on, go on, go on, go on!" | 8. "I'm no good at judging the size of crowds, Ted, but I'd say there's about 17 million of them out there" |
| 3. "Drink! Feck! Arse! Girls!" | 9. "Old women are closer to God than we'll ever be. They get to that age and they don't need the operator anymore. They've got the direct line." |
| 4. "That's mad, Ted" | 10. "That's nearly as mad as that thing you told me about the loaves and fishes!" |
| 5. "I hear you're a racist now, Father!" | 11. "So you took Father Jack out for a walk... and you lost him. Again." |
| 6. "I love my brick" | 12. "God Ted, I've heard about those cults. Everyone dressing in black and saying our Lord's going to come back and judge us all." |

Quotes Part 2

Can you identify the character from their memorable quote?

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. "They were a bit obsessed with the old... S-E-X. God, I'm glad I never think of that type of thing Father. That whole sexual world. God, when you think of it it's a dirty, filthy thing, isn't it Father? Can you imagine Father? Can you imagine Father, looking up at your husband, and him standing over you with his lad in his hand, wanting you to degrade yourself? God almighty can you imagine that Father? Can you picture it there Father? Oh, get a good mental picture of it. Can you see him there? Ready to do the business?" | 7. "How did that gobshite get on the television?" |
| 2. "I'm not a fascist. I'm a priest. Fascists dress up in black and tell people what to do. Whereas priests..." | 8. "Come on, Ted. Sure it's no more peculiar than all that stuff we learned in the seminary, you know, Heaven and Hell and everlasting life and all that type of thing. You're not meant to take it seriously, Ted!" |
| 3. "Oh she writes such filth, Father. It's always 'Feck this' and 'Feck that' – and sometimes she even uses the F-word!" | 9. "It's like asking the Holy Mother to stop appearing to schoolgirls at Ballinaspittle." |
| 4. "Dougal, how did you get into the church in the first place? Was it, like, 'collect 12 crisp packets and become a priest?'" | 10. "That would be quite common you know. The favourite son would become a doctor and then the idiot brother would be sent off to the priesthood" |
| 5. "Won't you have some cake, Father? It's got cocaine in it. Oh no, hang on, it's not cocaine, is it? What do I mean now? The little things... raisins!" | 11. "You're here until I tell you otherwise! You think I'd let Jack back into a normal parish after the wedding he did in Athlone, huh?!" |
| 6. "We were just talking about that fella Kurt Cobain. He was from America. Imagine blowing your head off with a shotgun. How'd he manage to survive that?" | 12. "Ah, nuns are great though Ted. It's good because you don't feel as nervous with them as you do with real women do you?" |

One For The Bar!

12 DID YOU KNOWS ABOUT THE TV SERIES FATHER TED

1 Did you know... Craggy Island isn't a real place!

The fictional island was inspired by the Aran Islands and other remote locations off Ireland's west coast, but "Craggy Island" was invented especially for the series.

7 Did you know... Father Dougal secretly wore a wig in Series 2.

After Ardal O'Hanlon had his hair cut following his wedding, the production used a specially made hairpiece to maintain continuity between studio and location filming.

2 Did you know... The famous parochial house really exists.

The exterior was filmed at Glenquin House near Ennis in County Clare, and it has since become a popular destination for Father Ted fans.

8 Did you know... The bird attack in "Think Fast, Father Ted" was inspired by Alfred Hitchcock.

The writers deliberately included the bizarre sequence as a tribute to The Birds.

3 Did you know... There are only 25 regular episodes.

Across three series, Father Ted consists of just 25 episodes, plus the hour-long Christmas Special, A Christmassy Ted.

SERIES 1 - 6
SERIES 2 - 8
SPECIAL - 1
TOTAL - 25

9 Did you know... The show was always intended to end after three series.

Dermot Morgan didn't want to become typecast as Father Ted, so the writers planned to finish after Series 3.

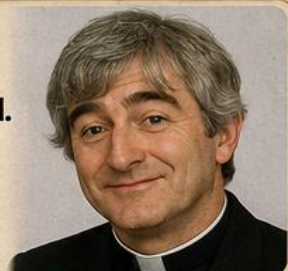

4 Did you know... Arthur Mathews created Father Ted before the TV series existed.

The character originally appeared in comedy sketches during live performances years before the sitcom was developed.

10 Did you know... Dermot Morgan died the day after filming wrapped.

He suffered a heart attack just one day after completing the final studio recording, aged only 45. The final series was delayed by a week as a mark of respect.

5 Did you know... Pulp almost wrote the theme tune.

After the band declined, Neil Hannon composed Songs of Love, which became one of television's most recognisable themes.

11 Did you know... The creators refused to continue the show without Father Ted.

Following Dermot Morgan's death, there were suggestions of recasting the role or producing spin-offs, but the writers rejected every proposal.

6 Did you know... Some audience laughs were so long they had to be shortened.

During studio recordings, certain jokes received such enormous laughs that producers edited several seconds out simply to keep the show moving.

12 Did you know... Father Ted became one of the most celebrated sitcoms of the 1990s.

It won multiple awards, built a huge cult following, and is still widely quoted and rewatched more than 30 years after its debut.
