

- 1 If something scores highly for usefulness and practical value, what single word describes that quality?

- 2 Classic Willow Pattern plates show blue artwork — but what colour is the background underneath?

- 3 When you roll a dice and hope for a six — what's the proper name for those little numbered dots staring back at you?

- 4 Structural, cyclical, and frictional are all recognised categories of which major economic concept?

- 5 Say “I do” to this one — which type of garment made designer Vera Wang a global fashion icon?

- 6 The flaming chalice is the best-known symbol of which liberal theological movement?

- 7 The initials VSO are widely recognised in the world of international volunteering — what does VSO stand for?

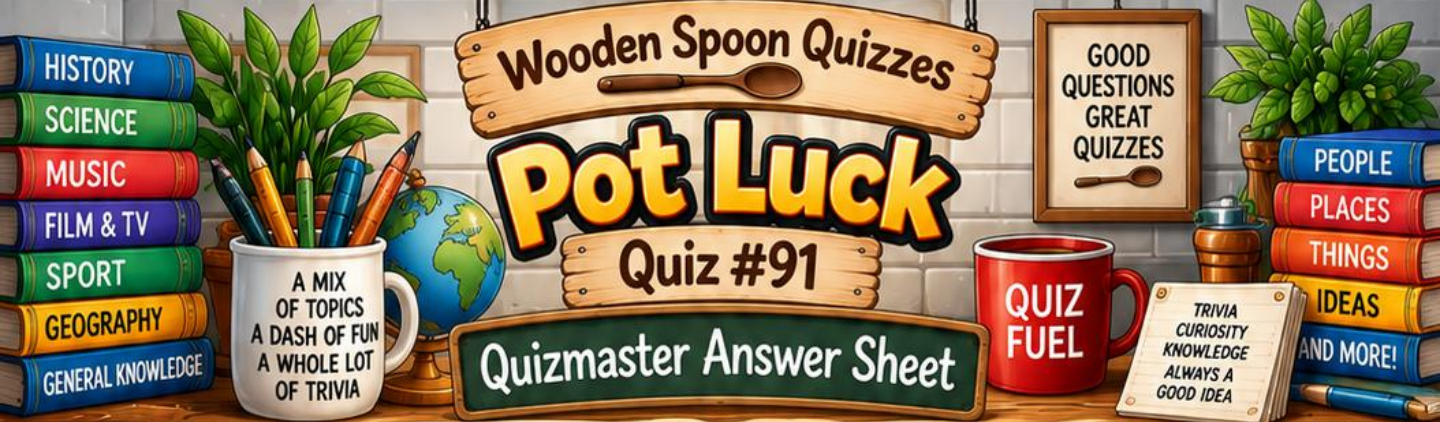

- 8 According to GK Chesterton, who made English roads before the Romans ever arrived?

- 9 Left stranded at a 1959 picnic with a can he couldn't open, Ermal Cleon Frazee had a lightbulb moment that changed drinking forever — what everyday drinks feature did he go on to invent?

- 10 Which Frank Zappa album parodied the Beatles' Sgt. Pepper cover?

- 11 Which everyday food links a 1970s American band fronted by David Gates and a classic 1980s British sitcom by Carla Lane?

- 12 “Leo the Lion” has been roaring at the start of films for decades — but which studio does he represent?

- 1 ? If something scores highly for usefulness and practical value, what single word describes that quality?

Utility

In economics, "utility" doesn't mean your gas bill — it means how much satisfaction or usefulness something delivers.

- 2 ? Classic Willow Pattern plates show blue artwork — but what colour is the background underneath?

White

The famous design tells a tragic love story hidden in the tiny pictures.

- 3 ? When you roll a dice and hope for a six — what's the proper name for those little numbered dots staring back at you?

Pips

Casino dice are manufactured to extremely tight tolerances — even tiny weight differences can affect how they roll.

- 4 ? Structural, cyclical, and frictional are all recognised categories of which major economic concept?

Unemployment

Economists split unemployment into types to understand whether the problem is timing, skills mismatch, or wider economic slowdown.

- 5 ? Say "I do" to this one — which type of garment made designer Vera Wang a global fashion icon?

Wedding dresses

Vera Wang didn't design her first wedding dress until she was 40.

- 6 ? The flaming chalice is the best-known symbol of which liberal theological movement?

Unitarianism

The symbol was first widely used during World War II as a sign of refuge and spiritual freedom.

- 7 ? The initials VSO are widely recognised in the world of international volunteering — what does VSO stand for?

Voluntary Service Overseas

VSO has sent thousands of skilled volunteers around the world since the 1950s — focusing on long-term community impact rather than short-term aid.

- 8 ? According to GK Chesterton, who made English roads before the Romans ever arrived?

The rolling English drunkard

In his poem The Rolling English Road, Chesterton joked that before the Romans built straight roads, they twisted and wandered because they followed the staggering footsteps of a drunken Englishman.

- 9 ? Left stranded at a 1959 picnic with a can he couldn't open, Ernie Zerk had a lightbulb moment that changed drinking forever — what everyday drinks feature did he go on to invent?

The ring-pull can opener (pull tab)

The ring-pull tab made Zerk a millionaire — all because he forgot a can opener.

- 10 ? Which Frank Zappa album parodied the Beatles' Sgt. Pepper cover?

We're Only in It for the Money

The artwork caused plenty of controversy at the time.

- 11 ? Which everyday food links a 1970s American band fronted by David Gates and a classic 1980s British sitcom by Carla Lane?

Bread

The band Bread had hits called "Make It With You" ... which sounds less romantic when you realise it's about carbs.

- 12 ? "Leo the Lion" has been roaring at the start of films for decades — but which studio does he represent?

MGM

That iconic roar? Not always real — some versions were completely faked in a studio.

