

- 1 What do you call someone who puts dictionaries together for a living?

- 2 Which item of clothing takes its name from Dongri, a district of Bombay?

- 3 Which British newspaper stopped publishing in 1971?

- 4 What does DUREX originally stand for?

- 5 Which Latin phrase means “method of working”?

- 6 Which controversial novel sparked Britain’s famous 1960 obscenity trial?

- 7 Who starred alongside Mel Gibson throughout the Lethal Weapon films?

- 8 The term “Gypsy” came from the mistaken belief that Romani people originated in which country?

- 9 According to the proverb, “The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that...” what?

- 10 Medieval castles weren’t exactly known for five-star accommodation! What was an oubliette?

- 11 You probably wouldn’t want one running your dating agency — who or what does a misogynist dislike or despise?

- 12 “The only fucking happiness that I ever had—and then it all gets taken away.” Which outspoken rock star said this, and about whom was she speaking?

woodenspoonquizzes.co.uk

woodenspoonquizzes

woodenspoonquizzes

woodenspoonquizzes

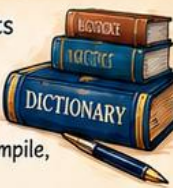

Quizmaster Answer Sheet

♥ Crafted with care.... Stirred to Perfection ♥

- 1 ? What do you call someone who puts dictionaries together for a living?

Lexicographer

One For The Bar! Lexicographers compile, edit and research dictionaries.

- 2 ? Which item of clothing takes its name from Dongri, a district of Bombay?

Dungarees

One For The Bar! Dungarees take their name from a coarse cloth associated with Dongri.

- 3 ? Which British newspaper stopped publishing in 1971?

Daily Sketch

One For The Bar! The Daily Sketch was absorbed into the Daily Mail.

- 4 ? What does DUREX originally stand for?

Durability, Reliability and Excellence

One For The Bar! DUREX was originally built from three words suggesting strength and quality.

- 5 ? Which Latin phrase means "method of working"?

Modus operandi

One For The Bar! "Modus operandi" is often shortened to "M.O." in crime stories.

- 6 ? Which controversial novel sparked Britain's famous 1960 obscenity trial?

Lady Chatterley's Lover

One For The Bar! The trial helped transform censorship laws and attitudes toward literature in Britain.

- 7 ? Who starred alongside Mel Gibson throughout the Lethal Weapon films?

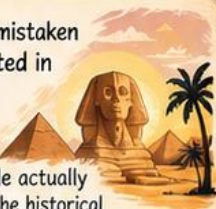

Danny Glover

One For The Bar! Danny Glover's famous line "I'm too old for this shit..." became a pop culture catchphrase.

- 8 ? The term "Gypsy" came from the mistaken belief that Romani people originated in which country?

Egypt

One For The Bar! The Romani people actually originated in northern India, despite the historical misconception.

- 9 ? According to the proverb, "The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that..." what?

...rules the world

One For The Bar! This 19th-century quote emphasises the immense influence mothers and caregivers have on society.

- 10 ? Medieval castles weren't exactly known for five-star accommodation! What was an oubliette?

A dungeon or prison cell entered through an opening in the ceiling.

One For The Bar! The name comes from the French oublier, meaning "to forget"—rather fitting for a dungeon where prisoners could disappear from sight!

- 11 ? You probably wouldn't want one running your dating agency — who or what does a misogynist dislike or despise?

Women

One For The Bar! The word misogyny comes from Greek roots meaning "hatred" and "woman".

- 12 ? "The only fucking happiness that I ever had—and then it all gets taken away." Which outspoken rock star said this, and about whom was she speaking?

Courtney Love, speaking about Kurt Cobain.

One For The Bar! Courtney made the remark while discussing her marriage to the Nirvana frontman and the devastation caused by his death in 1994.

